SARASOTA, FL, August 16, 2007 – Former House Speaker Newt Gingrich addressed the attendees of The Money Show in San Francisco on July 28 in a speech entitled “Winning the Future Under the Next Administration.” In addition, more than 50 of the country’s top investment experts discussed trends in the markets that impact the technology and biotechnology sectors through 150+ panels, workshops, seminars, and video interviews. For $79, MoneyShow.com members can have unlimited access to Speaker Gingrich’s speech, while more than 50 others will be available free, via Webcast, podcast, and short-segment Video Network interviews on MoneyShow.com this month.

His presentation addressed many of today's most significant and hotly contested political, economic, and social themes, many of which will play major roles in the upcoming presidential election in 2008. MoneyShow.com members will find his speech educational as they continue to make investments in the future. The following are several excerpts from Speaker Gingrich’s speech:

- “If you are thinking about the next 20-30 years, barring a major war, the human race is going to continue to get richer at somewhere between 3-5 percent a year unless politicians screw it up.”

- “We are in a genuine world market, whether we want to be or not, and the only thing we’re deciding is whether the jobs are in the US or the jobs are overseas. But we are not deciding whether or not there are jobs.”
- “You should calculate on a 4 to 7 fold increase in scientific knowledge over the next 25 years ...that is, we should have 4 times as much science in the next 25 years as we had in the last 25 years.”

Furthermore, MoneyShow.com users will have free access to Webcasts from the country’s top investment experts including Louis Navellier, CEO of Navellier & Associates, Ed Finn, Editor and President, Barron’s, Roger McNamee, Managing Director and Co-Founder of Elevation Partners, and Rich Karlgaard, Publisher, Forbes, among many others.

“Former House Speaker Newt Gingrich provides a unique perspective on a variety of issues facing our country today that affect investors’ future decisions,” said Charles Githler, Chairman of InterShow. “MoneyShow.com members will benefit from Mr. Gingrich’s presentation as well as the other speeches, interviews, panel discussions, and workshops that transpired during The San Francisco Money Show.”
